

Incident Name: Beachie Creek Fire Allergic Food Reaction (2020)

State: Oregon

Date: 9/13/20

Incident Type: Medical or Exertion or Heat

Description of the Incident:

An Engine Crew firefighter on the Beachie Creek Fire on the Willamette National Forest experienced an allergic food reaction and was administered two EpiPen injections. The patient was initially treated by a U.S. Forest Service EMT, then transported via ambulance to a hospital. The patient was treated and released back to the incident on the same day.

[This data was provided by the USFS Weekly Summary Report.]