

On or about June 21, 2016, a member of a USFS Type 1 hand crew was sent to the hospital with symptoms of Rhabdo. This incident occurred on the Fish fire, located on the Angeles National Forest.

A report was not filed for this incident.